

Les lignes verticales

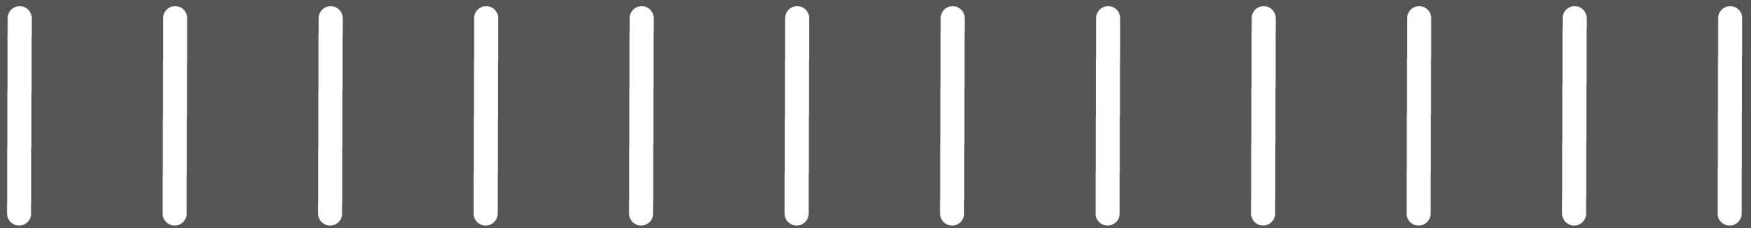

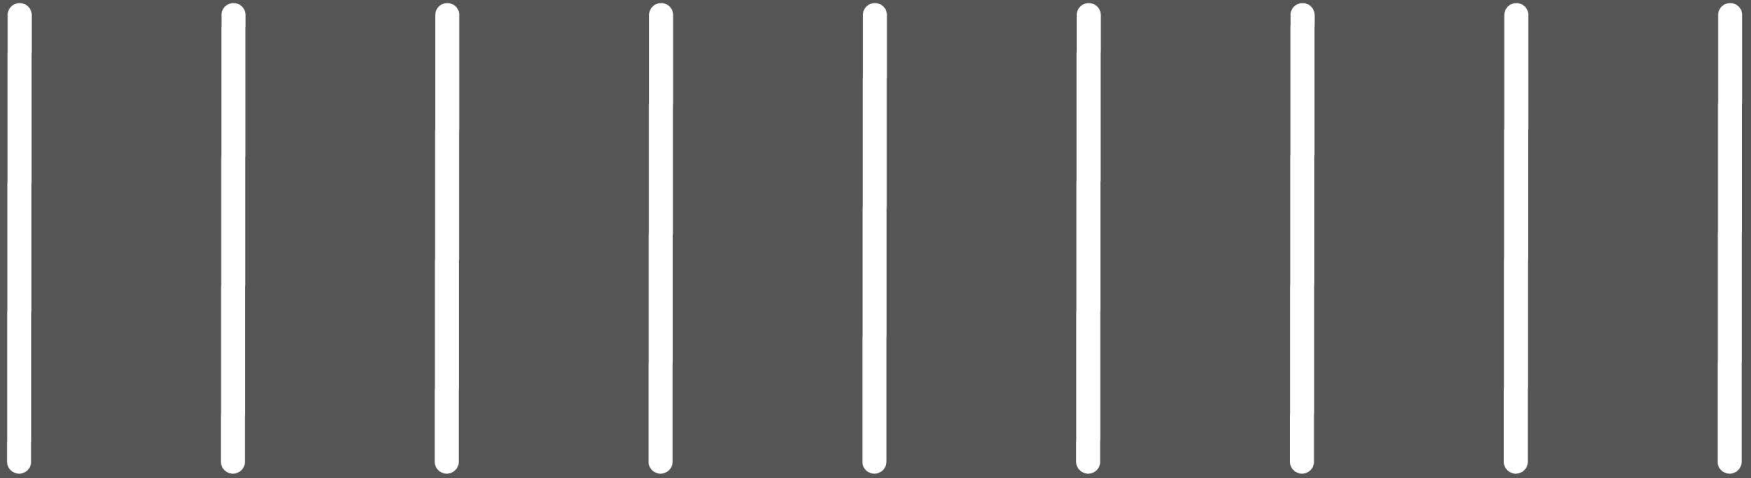

Sers-toi d'un feutre pour tracer les lignes verticales en reliant les points.

The image shows a tracing exercise on a white background. There are two sets of horizontal pink lines. Each set consists of a top line and a bottom line. The top line of each set has 15 black dots spaced evenly along its length. The bottom line of each set also has 15 black dots. In the top set, three vertical blue lines have been drawn, connecting the top and bottom lines at the first, second, and third dots from the left. In the bottom set, one vertical blue line has been drawn, connecting the top and bottom lines at the first dot from the left. The rest of the dots are empty, intended for the user to trace vertical lines.
